This is a participant acknowledgement for students taking part in Oklahoma State University Institute of Technology (OSUIT) sponsored trips. As a result of the Drug-Free Policy Statement concerning the prohibition of drugs and alcohol in college owned buildings, facilities, grounds or other property owned and/or controlled by the college or as a part of college activities, the following expectations do apply to you as a representative of OSUIT.

- All OSUIT students that participate in OSUIT sponsored trips assume the obligation to obey all rules and regulations of OSUIT as stated in the student handbook. In addition, all students will obey civil laws at the local, state and federal level.
- The use of alcohol during any OSUIT sponsored activity is strictly prohibited. Any violation of the drug-free policy shall be subject to disciplinary action through the student conduct process. In addition, any student that chooses to violate this policy may be asked to reimburse OSUIT his/her portion of the participation cost paid by the institution or its affiliates.

I have read, understood, and will comply with the above-mentioned information relating to policies and guidelines of OSUIT.
