Present: Steven Rubert and Karla Lamunyon, PTK; Todd Anderson and Kenton Morrow, Skills USA; Art Visconti and Lane Glory, ISA; Kevin Hulett and Karla Lamunyon, Ambassadors; Keith Gable and Chris Yandle, NGE; Randy Ritchey and Curtis Greb, AITP; Devin Debock, Beverly Dennis, Steven "Bo" Hudson, RHA; James McCullough, FAD; Leah Torbett and Carrie King, SNA; and Bruce Force, Kevin Montequé and Sandy Suiter (standing in for Doreen White), Student Life.

Meeting called to order at 11:43 a.m.

Bruce Force reminding attendants to fill out sign-in sheet and wishing everyone a Happy New Year. Welcomed first time attendees to the President's Roundtable asking them to introduce themselves: Curtis Greb, AITP.

Bruce Force brought notice to everyone attending that this is a busy time of the semester for everyone and explained that the meeting would be quick and that there was no agenda due to Doreen's absence.

Bruce Force explained that semester calendars would be late this semester but hope to receive them by Friday, January 11. The printing company had fallen two weeks behind due to the ice storm, last month.

Upcoming Student Life Activities include:

Presidents' Roundtable, Jan. 9, 11:30 am, Student Union

Bruce Force spoke on point verification competition for clubs and organizations saying that the activity request need to be turned in first and then you have the point verification sheet has to be to our office within 5 business days of the event. Reminder of off-campus trip insurance for anything outside the county and explained that everyone was doing a pretty good job.

Bruce Force reminded everyone to please make sure Student Life get your paper work in a timely fashion. He mentioned James Byrd is hosting the FFA and Skills USA events this semester. Spring break would occur from March 17th- March 21st. Easter this year is on the 23rd of March. Springfest would be taking place on April 9th, which would be the week before pre-finals week. Again semester calendars will be delivered as soon as we get them. Student Life Employees will help any way we can.

The next few weeks will be very busy and we could use some help hosting the blood drive if any club would like to assist.

Kevin Montequé welcomes everyone to 2008. The first thing mentioned on the intramural calendar would be the Volleyball meeting to occur on Jan. 17. Nets will go up at 7 pm for practice, reserve a time for practice and the Volleyball begins on Jan. 22.

BMI, Jan. 18, 9am – 2 pm, Covelle Hall

Kickboxing: Monday and Wednesday starting at 6 – 7 pm

Step Aerobics: Tuesday and Thursday starting at 6 – 7 pm

(Need your support for these new activities at Covelle Hall)

Pilates: Monday-Thursday, 6:15 am

Spin: Monday-Friday, 11:35 am- 12:15 pm

Tuesday and Thursday, 4:35 pm – 5:15 pm

Devin Debock ask Kevin if the Kickboxing is Cardio and wanted to know if the ladies need special martial art skill?

Kevin explains that Kickboxing is cardio and that the ladies need no marital arts background. Covelle Hall has targets for kickboxing. These new activities will help with peoples New Year's resolutions.

Beverly Dennis, RHA: Wanted to know what to bring to Pilates? Kevin answers with comfortable clothing and your OSU-Okmulgee ID.

Good of the order:

Kent Morrow, Skills USA: Turning in fees for memberships and getting ready for District Competition. The red coats on campus will be Skills USA.

Carla Lamunyon, PTK: Finishing Hallmarks, two trips: one to Philadelphia for Internationals and in February Regional Conference in Ardmore, OK.

Carla Lamunyon, Ambassadors: Helped with Graduation and are getting in gear for the new semester.

Curtis Greb, AITP: Introducing himself as the new president of the club

Keith Gable, NGE: Announcing NGE LAN parties beginning January 18. He is motivating NGE to volunteer for the Blood Drive. Problems at last party with Guitar Hero Guitar. Looking at cost of Band but is very expensive, but would like to get it in the future.

Lane Glory, ISA: Announcing their PSO tour and more work to be done for the new semester.

James McCullough, FAD: Announced new elections and the loss of vital members. Hoping to schedule meeting after Welcome Back Lunch and looking forward to contest in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, and Dallas.

Steven “Bo” Hudson, RHA: Talked about gaps in the club and the election on Tuesday night and looking forward to planning the new semester.

Devin Debock, RHA: Policy forms, talk to CA’s and energy management. RHA has a strong active roll in these areas.

Carrie King, SNA: Community projects going well. She announced the Christmas gift exchange and pizza at last meeting and looking to give the local pregnancy center a baby shower in the future.

The next Presidents’ Roundtable is Wednesday, February 6, in the Tech Room. February, March, and April will take place in the Tech Room.

Meeting adjourned at 12:01 pm.
