Meeting called to order at 11:30 a.m.

Bruce Force welcomed first time attendees to the Presidents' Roundtable and asked them to introduce themselves: Amanda Crosswell and Demita Voskopoja.

Force relayed some announcements:

Club Registration Forms are due to Student Life by September 17. Clubs/organizations will not be considered for the fee allocation process without this form. Fee allocation materials also are due to Student Life on September 17, in addition to having new officers visit the accounting office to sign signature cards. Clubs must have been in existence for one year to participate in the fee allocation process. The 15-minute presentation meetings will be conducted for three days at 4:30 to 6:30 pm the last week of September. Committee members needed to serve include: two Senators; one RHA; one PTK; one FCA; one Horology; one ISA; one MISA; one NGE; and one O&P. Committee members must be able to attend all three meetings.

Constitution Day is September 17. If your club would like to help with voter registration, please contact Bruce at x5456. CarniFall is scheduled Thursday, October 30. Please discuss this with your club and have Activity Requests to Student Life before Wednesday, October 9. Include how many tables and chairs, as well as what your fundraising activity will be.

The next Presidents' Roundtable is scheduled October 1, in the Student Union.

Steven Rubert then spoke to the group about Welcome Back Lunch, Student Job Fair, and University Name Change event scheduled, September 10, 2008, 11 am – 1 pm, Student Union. Volunteers are needed to help with the event. Please wear orange.

Good of the Order:

Amanda Crosswell, ISA: Members recently toured Cardinal Glass Plant, Durant; held a Gatorade industry presentation; will hold elections soon; and received a set of Michelin tires as a raffle fundraiser.

Terra Beaver, NASA: Members are investigating various types of fundraisers; will attend the Stillwater Pow Wow; and tour Creek Nation.

Joe Bardin, SNA: Members are preparing to elect officers and select service projects

James McCullough, FAD: Members will soon hold elections; have t-shirts for sale, will help sponsor the Sept. 18 and Nov. 20 Tulsa Art Directors meetings. The meeting on Sept. 18 is at Tulsa Little Theater. They also are planning a fall trip.

April Green, O&P: Members will soon select their members for the Fee Allocation Committee and another to present to that committee. Their first meeting is next week where they will discuss Service Learning Projects and Fundraising ventures.

Crystal Robol, PTK: Members presented “Go Green” to one of the Henryetta Public Schools, and are planning presentations at Morris and Preston. They are collecting donations for the Tulsa Day Center; will restart reading to Childcare children and performing campus clean up. Members also are interviewing members to serve as officers, and exploring speakers to invite to speak.

Karla LaMunyon, AITP: Members received 22 computers for their computers on campus project, and the Beggs Cemetery database is coming right along.

Karla LaMunyon, Student Ambassadors: Ambassadors recently ushered for graduation.

Matt Davis, ACR: Most of his officers are on internship, and three graduated in August. Their first meeting is in two weeks.

Bruce Force: There are dates still open for clubs/organizations to assist with a weekend activity. Currently, open dates include: November 1, 8, 15 & 22, as well as December 6.

Matt Davis asked if there would be any courts outdoors for any sports since the sand volleyball court was removed. Force said there are no plans at this time to build any additional outdoor courts.

Art Visconti asked if OSU Institute of Technology participates in Corporate Challenge. Force said we have in the past, but currently have no one to head up that effort.

Matt Davis asked if Force got an amount for fee allocation to clubs/organizations. Force answered, "No."

Meeting adjourned 12:10 am
