Meeting called to order at 11:45am

New to Presidents' Roundtable were Shelbie Childress, RHA; Stephanie Devine, FAD; and Cody Lubbers, ACR.

Bruce Force asked club leaders to check with their members to see if they could rally volunteers to help with Family Night on July 15. Begin working on information for the Fee Allocation to begin in late September. Updated registration forms are due for any clubs who have changed leadership – officers or advisors.

Force's dates to remember:

August 9 – 15	Pre-finals Week
August 17	Moonlight Breakfast, 9-10pm, Student Union
August 21	Graduation, 3pm for everyone except Automotive/HEVi And 7pm for Automotive/HEVi
August 31	Fall Semester Begins

The next Presidents' Roundtable is August 5.

Junior Henry asked if there will be intramural soccer. Force said probably in the fall, because there were only two people interested in playing.

Art Visconti asked if there would be softball this summer. Force answered yes – both in summer and fall. Visconti then asked about food vendors for the upcoming ECOEC annual meeting. Force said a couple of clubs are thinking about it. All vendors must have food handler's permits, and in the fall there will be on-campus training for the permits.

Veronica Biddle then relayed Student Life's upcoming activities:

July 13	Horseshoe Tournament, 6pm, Covelle Hall
July 14	Blood Drive, 10am – 4pm, Covelle Hall - Hydrate
July 14	Softball Coaches' Meeting, 4pm, Covelle Hall
July 15	Free Massages, 11am – 4pm, Covelle Hall
July 15	Family Night, 6 - 7pm, Covelle Hall
July 16	Free Movie Night, 7pm, Orpheum Theatre, Ice Age 3 and Harry Potter
July 17	BMI Testing, 9am – 2pm, Covelle Hall
July 21	Softball Begins, 6pm, Sports Field

Good of the Order:

Pedro Moreno, ISA: Members will have a luncheon with KAMO on the third Wednesday this month, and they will provide two scholarships for students. They are holding officer elections. Members will tour Georgia Pacific next week in their new Polo shirts.

Junior Henry, MISA: The club is not doing a lot currently, but before summer break, they attended a seminar about Kurdistan. In the next couple of weeks, they will attend a Korean seminar. Plans are in the works for an end of semester celebration for outgoing officers and hold elections.

Leah Torbett, SNA: Plans are being made for a Meet and Greet in September and a move-in party and reception. Members also are planning some fundraisers.

Stephanie Devine, FAD: They are taking their major trip to San Antonio/Austin July 21 – 25 to polish portfolios, go down the Riverwalk, and visit art museums. Hopefully, some students might get to intern down there.

Sanica Lining, NASA: Tomorrow's 1:30pm meeting will be potluck. The women won the recent stickball tournament. They will begin a raffle tomorrow for blankets and shawls. And they are excited about an upcoming meet and greet for the new Muscogee Creek Nation College president.

Shadow Rider, AITP: They are still exacting changes to their bylaws to change meeting requirements so general meetings will be more fun. Club members are building machines in rooms 4&6 in the ETD building. They also are planning a tour with alumni Steve Cagle at the F&M Bank Data Center.

TJ Stryker, PTK: Letters are being prepared for new inductees. He recently represented the chapter at a conference in Pocahontas, Arkansas.

Shelby Childress, RHA: Members are having the pool tables reupholstered, and are buying new balls and racks, as well as new television sets for Wilson and Lackey Hall. They also are re-doing care packages and are planning for the Moonlight Breakfast and a Welcome Back movie.

Matt Davis, ACR: Members had a cookout before summer break. They are waiting to get a cap design back for members to vote on. Members will hold a breakfast meeting at their next regular meeting, and will take a field trip to Bama Pie on August 6. Also, needs help with Move-In Day. If you don't volunteer to help you will not get a shirt – contact Matt.

Bruce Force, Student Life: December 3 is the Annual Children's Christmas Party. The new campus counselor will be the new Student Senate advisor.

Meeting adjourned at 12:30pm
