Executive Summary

Results for the spring 2019 administration of the Priorities Survey for Online Learners (PSOL) lessened from the higher than expected ratings observed in spring 2018. Last year's overall positive results were likely an artifact of some unknown historic and/or regional effect creating a general positive attitude among online students at OSUIT. However, the effect was evidenced generally with higher importance ratings observed as well; remember that the level of importance provides context for the level of satisfaction. Consider, though, that the increase in satisfaction in spring 2018 was reproduced in other OSUIT reports as well and was not limited to just online students. Whatever the effect, it has moderated somewhat in the 2019 PSOL results.

OSUIT's strengths in 2019 reflect a general satisfaction by online learners in the following areas:

- Sufficient additional hands-on experience, when applicable
- Program requirements that are clear and reasonable
- Choices are available for taking classes face-to-face or online
- Registration for online courses is convenient
- Program advisors are accessible by phone or email
- Number of online course offerings at OSUIT is sufficient
- Convenience of billing and payment procedures

OSUIT Challenges focus more specifically on the following, primarily in Instructional Services:

- Faculty are responsive to student needs
- Quality of online instruction is excellent
- Faculty provide timely feedback about student progress
- Tuition paid is a worthwhile investment

OSUIT responses this year, as in most years, continue to reflect similar concerns as those of the national comparison group while also continuing to run slightly lower both on satisfaction and on importance. In most cases, differences in satisfaction between OSUIT online learners and the national comparison group were not statistically significant. However, OSUIT online students did report lower satisfaction than the national group in the following areas:

- Faculty are responsive to student needs
- Registration for online courses is convenient
- Student assignments are clearly defined in the syllabus
- Quality of online instruction is excellent

When considering enrollment at OSUIT, the most important factors for online students include convenience, program requirements, and work schedule. As for sources of information used in making the decision to attend OSUIT, the website, online catalog, and recommendation from instructor or program advisor received the highest importance ratings.

Introduction

Online learning programs are rapidly gaining popularity. Students in these programs also have different needs, expectations, and priorities than traditional students. The Ruffalo Noel Levitz Priorities Survey for Online Learners (PSOL) measures student satisfaction and priorities showing how satisfied students are as well as what issues are important to them, much like the Ruffalo Noel Levitz Student Satisfaction Inventory (SSI), but tailored for students taking coursework online. Ruffalo Noel Levitz modified and crafted the items for use with distance learning students. The PSOL is currently only available as an online instrument.

Sample Selection, Notification and Administration

All OSUIT students taking an online or hybrid class during spring semester 2019 with an active email address were invited to take part in the PSOL. This is the fifth administration of this survey at OSUIT. The PSOL administration ran from February 5 through April 18, 2019. Email addresses were sent to Ruffalo Noel Levitz; the invitation and 13 reminders were prepared and scheduled by this office and disbursed via Ruffalo Noel Levitz. Emails included a unique passcode for each student to access the survey online. Out of 1,079 students invited to participate, 296 online students completed the PSOL for a 27.4% response rate. These results also include for comparison the National Online Learners, a comparison group of all colleges and universities administering the PSOL during the 2016-2017, 2017-2018, and 2018-2019 academic years. The national group results for 2019 were based on 126,748 responses gathered over the three-year period.

Demographics

Participants in the 2019 sample were 51.8 percent male, 48.2 percent female. Only 24 participants (9.1%) were age 18 or under; 42.8 percent were 19-24; 22.4 percent were 25-34; 13.3 percent were 35-44; 12.5 percent were over 45 years of age. The racial identity of students at OSUIT was 62.6 percent White; 16.4 percent were American Indian/Alaskan Native, 8.4 percent were Black/African American, 5.1 percent were Hispanic, 2.6 percent were Asian or Pacific Islander, and another 3.6 percent chose "Prefer not to respond". Full-time enrollment for this sample was 77.2 percent. Educational goals for this sample included 38.6 percent who planned to pursue or are pursuing a Bachelor's degree, 46.6 percent were seeking an Associate degree and 10.9 percent plan to pursue an advanced degree. Many were working (65.6%) while taking classes with 38.2 percent employed full-time. For complete demographic information included in the report from Ruffalo Noel Levitz, see Appendix A.

Instrument

The PSOL items describe student expectations of educational offerings and support services relative to distance learning. The survey consists of 26 standard items with an additional six campus-defined questions. The standard items and the campus-defined items were rated by respondents both on importance and on satisfaction. The PSOL also asks students about the sources of information they used in choosing OSUIT and other factors that played into their decisions; these items were rated on the importance scale only.

PSOL survey items make up the following five survey scales:

Institutional Perceptions- assesses how students perceive our institution.

Academic Services- assesses the services students utilize to achieve their academic goals. These services include advising, course offerings, technical assistance, online library resources, and tutoring services.

Instructional Services- measures students' academic experience, the instructional materials, the faculty/student interactions, evaluation procedures, and the quality of the instruction.

Enrollment Services- assesses the processes and services related to enrolling students in the online program, including financial aid, registration, and payment procedures.

Student Services- measures the quality of student programs and services, including responses to student requests, online career services, and the bookstore.

Students were asked to respond with a level of importance and a level of satisfaction for these expectations using the following ratings:

IMPORTANCE

- 1 = not important at all
- 2 = not very important
- 3 = somewhat unimportant
- 4 = neutral
- 5 = somewhat important
- 6 = important
- 7 = very important

SATISFACTION

- 1 = not satisfied at all
- 2 = not very satisfied
- 3 = somewhat dissatisfied
- 4 = neutral
- 5 = somewhat satisfied
- 6 = satisfied
- 7 = very satisfied

The difference between the importance score and the satisfaction score results in a “performance gap” score. The performance gap is useful for understanding the students’ level of satisfaction in context. Performance gaps are calculated by subtracting the satisfaction score from the importance score on each item that makes up the scale and, cumulatively, for the scales themselves.

Results for the Five Survey Scales

The difference on satisfaction ratings between online students at OSUIT in 2019 versus 2018 was not statistically significant. Compared to the national group, however, two of the five scales revealed satisfaction lower than that of the national group at statistically significant levels. Online learners at OSUIT reported lower satisfaction for Enrollment Services than did the national group ( $p < .01$ ), and Student Services elicited lower satisfaction ratings as well ( $p < .01$ ). The other three scales—Academic Services, Instructional Services, and Institutional Perceptions—were undifferentiated from the national group statistically, meaning satisfaction among online learners at OSUIT was essentially the same as the national average. Taking these scales and drilling-down— performing an item-level analysis— identified strengths and challenges for a better understanding of how to address the needs of the OSUIT online students.

Strategic Planning Overview

The Strategic Planning Overview identifies the areas that matter most to online learners at OSUIT, where their expectations are being met, and where there is room for improvement. The Strategic Planning Overview provides a summary of the results for immediate action planning; it identifies areas to celebrate and areas that need attention. The overview identifies the top strengths and top challenges at OSUIT.

Occasionally, one or two items may appear on both lists as strengths and challenges. This occurs when an item has very high importance, relatively high satisfaction as well as a large performance gap. The satisfaction score may qualify it as a strength, while the performance gap qualifies it as a challenge. This office recommends focusing on such items as a challenge since students still find it important and still feel that there is room for improvement. This year, there were no items listed as both a strength and a challenge.

Strategic Planning Overview: Strengths

At the item level, those items rated with both high importance and high satisfaction are considered strengths. Strengths provide positive feedback on what is working effectively. OSUIT online learners reported high importance and satisfaction in two areas in Academic Services, two areas in Enrollment Services and with three campus-specific items:

- When applicable, there is sufficient additional hands-on experience in my major (campus item)
- Program requirements are clear and reasonable (Academic Services)
- At OSUIT, choices are available for taking classes either face-to-face or online. (campus item)

- Registration for online courses is convenient. (Enrollment Services)
- My program advisor is accessible by telephone and e-mail. (Academic Services)
- There are sufficient online courses available through OSUIT. (campus item)
- Billing and payment procedures are convenient for me. (Enrollment Services)

Strategic Planning Overview: Challenges

Items with high importance and low satisfaction, a large performance gap, are considered challenges. Challenges are the areas that students care most about, which they also feel can be further improved upon by the campus. Three of the following four items represent quality of course delivery and communication with faculty. OSUIT online learners reported lower satisfaction on the following items of high importance:

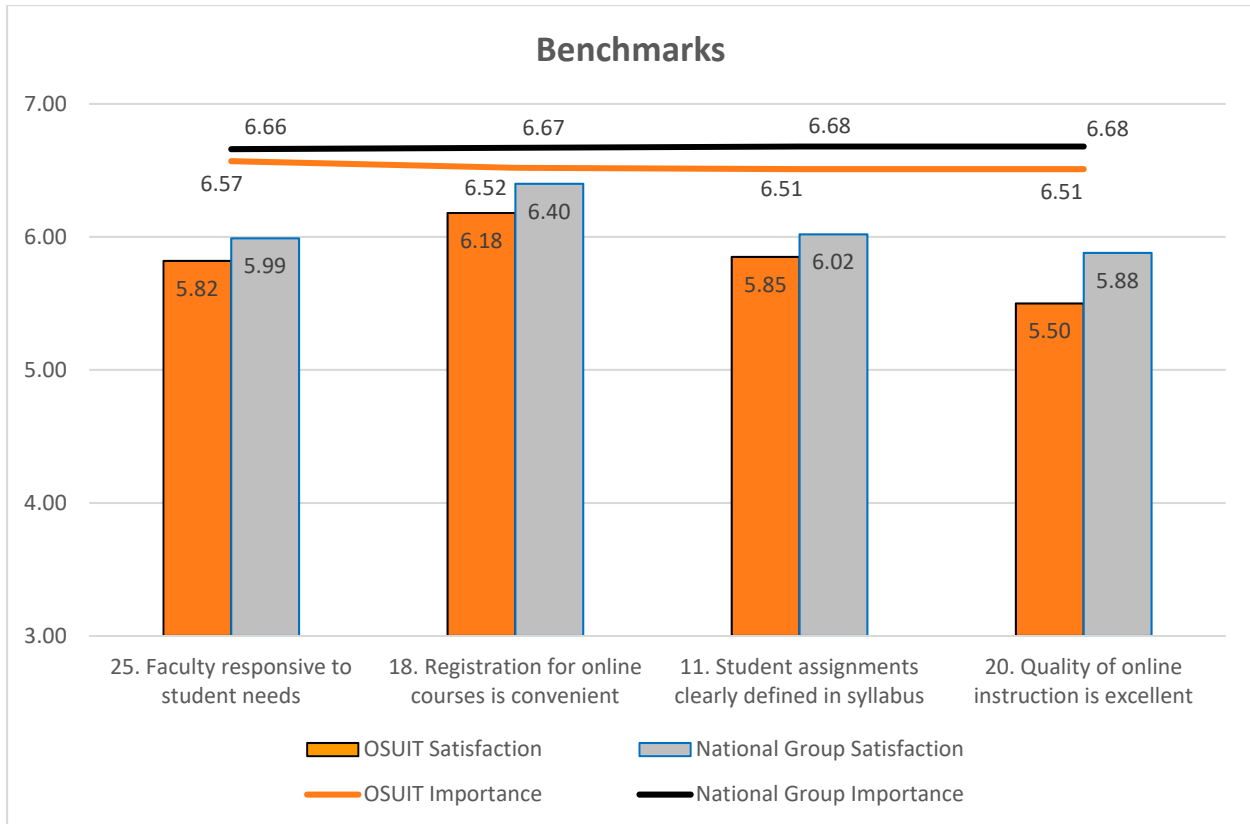

- Faculty are responsive to student needs. (Instructional Services)
- Quality of online instruction is excellent. (Instructional Services)
- Faculty provide timely feedback about student progress. (Instructional Services)
- Tuition paid is a worthwhile investment. (Institutional Perceptions)

Lower Satisfaction at OSUIT vs. National Online Learners

The Strategic Planning Overview summarizes how OSUIT online learners’ results compare with the national online learners group (“national group”) by listing items with higher satisfaction, lower satisfaction, and higher importance as “Benchmarks”; this allows a quick overview to see how OSUIT student perceptions compare nationally. This list, as compiled by Ruffalo Noel Levitz, only includes items in the top half of importance ratings. Compared to national benchmarks, OSUIT students reported lower satisfaction in the following areas:

- Faculty are responsive to student needs. (Instructional Services)
- Registration for online courses is convenient. (Enrollment Services)
- Student assignments are clearly defined in the syllabus. (Instructional Services)
- The quality of online instruction is excellent. (Instructional Services)

Summary Items

The PSOL also included three summary questions regarding students’ general attitudes. These questions help the institution determine the likelihood of a positive or negative attitude that may reflect on the institution’s reputation during face-to-face interactions with others.

When asked, “So far, how has your college experience met your expectations?” the average of responses for OSUIT was 4.82 on a seven point scale between 4 = “About what I expected” and 5 = “Better than I expected”. The average of responses for the national group was higher at 5.18. The average for OSUIT last year was 4.90. Of the three summary items, this particular item remained relatively high compared to last year’s result.

When asked, “Rate your overall satisfaction with your experience here thus far”, the average of responses for OSUIT was 5.14 falling between 5 = “Somewhat satisfied” and 6 = “Satisfied”. The average of responses for the national group was higher at 5.82. The average for OSUIT last year was 5.43.

When asked, “All in all, if you had to do it over, would you enroll here again?” the average of responses for OSUIT was 5.55 vs. 5.86 for the national group. On a seven-point scale, these responses fall between “Maybe yes” and “Probably yes”. The average for OSUIT last year was 5.78.

Sources of Information

In addition to the five survey scales, the survey includes seven items that assess the sources of information students use in deciding to enroll. These items only ask for an importance rating and do not include satisfaction or performance gap scores. Respondents were presented a list of Sources of Information to rate how important these sources were in the student's decision to enroll in online classes. According to online learners at OSUIT, the campus web site continued to be the most important source of information followed by recommendations from an instructor or program advisor and the course catalog (online). Least important this year, according to students' perceptions, were advertisements and catalog & brochures (printed).

Factors to Enroll

Also included in the survey are 11 items that assess pre-enrollment factors. Again, these items only ask for an importance rating and do not include satisfaction or performance gap scores. Respondents were presented a list of Factors to Enroll to rate how important these factors were in the student's decision to enroll in online classes. According to online learners at OSUIT, the most important factors in the decision to enroll were cost, future employment opportunities, and convenience. Recommendations from employer and distance from campus continued from last year as least important to OSUIT online learners.

Conclusions

In 2019, satisfaction diminished somewhat from the five-year high observed in 2018. In most cases, differences in satisfaction between OSUIT online learners and the national comparison group were not statistically significant. OSUIT responses this year, as in most years, continues to reflect the same concerns as those of the national comparison group while also continuing to run slightly lower both on satisfaction and on importance. Last year's overall positive results may have been an artifact of any number of situations that may have had a general positive impact on OSUIT online students. Since higher than expected ratings on both importance and satisfaction were observed using other survey instruments as well, it is apparent that the ratings were not due to an error in sampling. Continued monitoring of trends may help provide insight into what may have caused the bump in ratings in 2018.

OSUIT's strengths in 2019 reflect a general satisfaction by online learners with choices for course offerings and instructional methods, registration and billing/payment procedures, hands-on experience when appropriate for the program/major, and accessibility of program advisors. Challenges focus more specifically on Instructional Services such as the quality of online instruction, faculty responsiveness to student needs, and providing timely feedback to students on their academic progress. Compared to benchmarks set by the national group, OSUIT online students reported lower satisfaction for faculty responsiveness to student needs, quality of online instruction, clear definition of assignments in the syllabus, and registration issues for online courses.

Among sources of information students used in making the decision to take online courses from OSUIT, the campus website, online catalog, and recommendation from instructor or program advisor received the highest importance ratings. The most important factors for online students considering enrollment at OSUIT included convenience, program requirements, and work schedule.

As previously mentioned, Appendix A contains the results from Ruffalo Noel Levitz. Appendix B shows a table with sparklines— line graphs with markers— for individual survey items comparing satisfaction of OSUIT online learners over the past five consecutive academic years. Appendix C provides more specific five-year comparison results for OSUIT online learners on each item showing trends for both importance and satisfaction. Appendix D offers bar graphs reflecting 1) sources of information students use in making a decision to attend OSUIT, and 2) factors that influence those decision for 2019; these are followed by five-year results and trends for the sources of information and factors that influence choosing OSUIT.

Note: Sparklines in the appendices are not proportional and can easily exaggerate minimal differences in the data; this is why they are used for at-a-glance information. Sparklines in this report show changes between five years of data, but the lines are not comparable with each other because they are not standardized or reported relative to a standard scale.
